MUNICIPAL FINANCE IMPROVEMENT PROGRAMME PHASE II- EXPRESSION OF INTETEST

Purpose of the MFIP Phase II

The purpose of the programme was to facilitate the improved management of the financial affairs of Municipalities in terms of compliance, and effective implementation of the Municipal Finance Management Act (MFMA), Act 56 of 2003. The MFIP has further supported Presidential Outcomes 9 and 12 on helping to build a responsive, effective and efficient, local government system.

This serves as a reminder with regard to the letter from National Treasury dated, 14 August 2014. The letter seeks to inform Municipalities on the launch of the Municipal Finance Management Improvement Programme Phase II (MFIP II).

This programme, will cover various elements of financial management, such as strategic planning, budgeting, in year implementation and monitoring, annual financial statements, annual reporting, asset management, supply chain management, internal auditing and oversight.

The self explanatory information is attached and covers the following documents:

- Letter to Municipal Manager
- Expression of Interest Part I
- Expression of Interest Part II

Municipalities that are interested to benefit from this technical support under the MFIP II are further provided with an opportunity to make a detailed written submission" Expression of Interest".

The MFIP II will focus on compliance, and assist to improve in the implementation of the performance objectives as enshrined in the legislative and regulatory framework governing local government.

Your are requested to kindly send your completed application (Cover letter signed by the Honourable Mayor and the Municipal Manager, Expression of Interest Part 1 and Part II) to:
